GENERAL EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Scouting

(Please see contacts below for more information. SPX-tras will not handle registrations or fee collection.)

• Boys Scouts:

Contact George Kempf, Boy Scout Committee Chair

January - March 2008: we are accepting the new class of Boy Scouts to St. Pius X Troop 441. This is just in time to prepare for a week of Boy Scout Summer Camp at Ransburg! If you would like to check out the troop first, there are also individual event opportunities available to boys before they become Scouts. Talk with a current Boy Scout or call Mr. Kempf (see phone number in parish directory).

NOTE: Registration for Boy Scouts does not require a boy to have previously participated in Cub Scouts though they must have completed the 5th grade.

• Cub Scouts:

Contact Lisa Doyle, Cub Scout Committee Chair

Contact Merrick Mossman, Cubmaster

January - February 2008: Boys in 1st – 4th grade are invited to join St. Pius X Cub Scout Pack 441. This is the perfect time to sign up for Cub Scouts with Summer Camp just around the corner! Camp options include a week-long day camp at Camp Belzer (currently 1st - 4th graders) or overnight Webelos Adventure Camp at Camp "K" (Kikthawenund) (currently 3rd - 4th graders). Registered Cub Scouts will receive information from the Pack; prospective new Scouts should contact Mrs. Doyle or Mr. Mossman for more information (See phone numbers in parish directory).

• Brownies and Girls Scouts:

Contact Cathy Nickerson, Girl Scout Liaison,

St. Pius X School currently has one troop for each grade. New members are always welcome! For those girls currently registered for Scouts, please watch your mail for the Girl Scout Camp brochure to find registration information for Summer Camps - Day and Overnight Camps. If you are not a registered Girl Scout but would like more information about Scouts or Summer Camp, please contact Mrs. Nickerson. (See phone number in parish directory).

Fee: $49 – (Fee MUST accompany Registration form to be confirmed in activity. Payable: St. Pius School (SPX-tras in memo))

Yoga was a very popular Electives class last year & those who took it last session really enjoyed it! This is an introductory yoga class, combining relaxation with exercises that build strength and improves flexibility for people of all ages. It is a great way to stay healthy while developing concentration and focus. Participants should wear comfortable clothing.

* PARENT PARTICIPATION

We've been approached with several requests for parent participation in Yoga. We opened up registration last session for parents and it was well received so we will again do this. Because SPX-tras is designed for student participation, students will receive priority in the registration process. Parents are welcome to register and may participate as long as their child is also registered and we haven't reached maximum participation with student registrations. This decision is based on many unique factors for this activity and should not be construed as a registration option for future SPX-tras activities.

- Participants should bring their own mat. If you have trouble obtaining one, please contact SPX-tras Co-Directors.
- Class size: minimum 7 students – maximum 10 students

Helen Lester Book Series

This Book Club is going to be run a bit differently! Author Helen Lester will be visiting St. Pius in the Spring. To prepare for this visit, students will read any book(s) they choose that she has written. It's OK if students read different books the author has written. The goal of this book club is students will come with their questions they'd like to ask the author next Spring based on the book(s) they read. Mrs. Ratkey will keep track of questions for the author. Students may read one book or as many as they'd like. Mrs. Ratkey is anxious to gather all of the great questions the students want to ask the author!! What a neat way for students to prepare for Helen Lester's visit!

Mrs. Ratkey says Helen Lester has written many books. Here are just a few to choose from:

Author a true story	It wasn't my fault
Listen Buddy	Porcupine names Fluffy
Princess Penelope's Parro	Score one for the Sloths
Something might happen	Tacky the Penguin(series)

- Fee includes snack
- Class size: minimum 3 students – maximum 15 students
- Students must obtain the book on their own. Some can be checked out at St. Pius' library (only through March though), purchase at a book store or check the public library for availability. Siblings may share a book.
